

South Range Local High School's spring musical is the charming and thought-provoking "Once On This Island" by Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty.

Set in the French Antilles archipelago in the Caribbean Sea, this musical folk tale tells the story of Ti Moune, a peasant girl who falls in love with the well-born Daniel and is aided by the gods of earth, water and love in her quest to be with him.

The show includes elements of William Shakespeare's legendary tragedy Romeo and Juliet and of Hans Christian Andersen's classic fairy tale The Little Mermaid.

The South Range High School Drama Team consists of 40 students who have been working hard towards this exciting production since January. The show will feature many beautiful and touching songs and a variety of dance numbers sure to take you away to the French Antilles.

Performances for "Once On This Island" are 7 p.m. March 16 & 17, and 2 p.m. March 18. Tickets are on sale now at the South Range Middle School office, or can be purchased the night/afternoon of the show. Tickets are $9 for adults, and $7 for students and seniors.

Phil Dispenza as Daniel and Lillian Kimpel as TiMoune from "Once on This Island".
